

Eng. Karim Aly

By admin

Created 02/01/2016 - 14:01

Partner
Strategy&

Display Order: 7

Karim Aly is a Dubai-based Partner with Strategy& and a member of the firm's Public Sector practice.

Karim has extensive experience in strategy and business development, organizational restructuring, and operations. He focuses on large scale transformation initiatives including economic reform programs, sector strategy development, and organizational restructuring.

Karim currently leads the Public Private Partnerships offering for Strategy& in the MENA region and has published several articles and papers on the topic, including "Partnerships for transformation: Using public-private partnerships in the GCC."

He holds a BSc in mechanical engineering from the American University in Cairo and an MBA from INSEAD.