

Marwan Aljahani

By admin

Created 02/28/2016 - 15:08

CEO and partner of ShiftIN Partner KSA

Display Order: 69

Marwan Aljahani works with leaders and their organizations to grow their leadership and strategy skills and change their attitudes in order to grow their business and their societies. Over years of experience leading, facilitating and coaching in global companies and government institution. Marwan currently is the CEO and partner of ShiftIN Partner KSA. Holds leadership certifications from numerous internationally-recognized leadership development organizations. Marwan has worked as CEO of Now for training and as Change Management Manager in SABIC in a global project dealing with massive changes in the organization toward cash mindset. Expertise: leadership Development, innovation strategy execution, Coaching and change management. Advises, mentors, and coaches leaders, including entrepreneurs, to develop entrepreneurial mindsets, most recently in Uganda, Africa. Master's degree, International Management, The University of Warwick, UK. Research: Leaders' and Organizational Cultures.